MARRIAGES.

At the residence of the bride's father, in this county, on the 17th inst., by Rev. Mr. Drennon, Mr. James W. Harrelson to Miss Ollie W., daughter of John H. Fulkerson, Esq., all of this county. To the bridal party we return our thanks for cake and gold dollar. May they ever be blessed with all the blessings of life.

"Not for this span of life alone,
Which as a blast doth fly,
And like the transient flower of grass,
Just blossom, droop and die;
But for a being without end,
This vow of love we take."

At the residence of the bride's father, November 12th, 1868, by the Rev. John A. Prather, William A. Barnett, Esq., to Miss Laura B. Cheatham, both of Lafayette county. No cards.

"Then come the wild weather—sleet or snows,"

We will stand by each other, however it blows;

Oppression and sickness, sorrow and pain,
Shall be to our true love as links to the chain."

Married, in Wellington, November 12th, by the Rev. A. A. Moore, Mr. George W. Farrell to Miss Fannie Waller. No cards.

"Only one care your gentle hearts should move,

The important business of your life is love."

Married, on the night of the 5th, at the house of Mr. Adam Fickas, by the Rev. G. V. Ridley, Mr. Lafayette Borgley to Miss Mary Fickas, all of Johnson county.

On the morning of the 8th inst., by the Rev. G. V. Ridley, at the residence of Mr. E. A. Williams, Mr. Samuel K. Heck to Miss Larissa Minyetta Williams, all of Johnson county.

DEATHS.

Died, on Thursday, November 12th, at 12 o'clock, at the residence of her brother-in-law, J. C. Agnew, of cancer, Eliza K. Maxwell, daughter of the late Dr. Joseph Maxwell, of Kansas City.

At the residence of D. Robert Barclay, Esq., in St. Louis, on Saturday, November 7th, 1868, of typhoid fever, after a painful illness of three weeks, Thomas Pickney Alston, eldest son of J. Motte and Mary Fitzsimmons Alston, of Columbia, South Carolina.

In Clay county, on the 13th Oct., Mr. Abijah Stapp, aged 56 years, 7 months and 28 days.

Failed—It would seem the money panic has reached this city, if we judge by the failure of another house; that of F. Schnell.

Sinauer—This gentleman is now closing out his stock of dry goods and notions, at his stand, two doors west of Winsor's corner, for the purpose of engaging exclusively in the clothing business. Persons in quest of bargains must call soon or they will be too late.

The Gas Vote—The proposition submitted to the people of this city, to take two thirds of the stock in a gas company, was very emphatically defeated, the vote standing 52 for to 187 against the measure. One leading reason for this vote was that the gas to be generated was to be taken from grease instead of coal. Others thought that the "parties of the first part" a little too stringent.

Waverly—The people of Waverly have determined to assume a municipal form, and to this end have elected James Goodwin, Esq., mayor. The change in its relations will take place about the first of December, or so soon as the charter incorporating it can be printed, and the place put upon a city footing.

The Weather—Various. We have had pleasant in the week; we have had it raining, freezing and thawing, and it came without money and without price. Monday we had, for a little while, driving little blow, with snow, right in Iowa and Minnesota, the negroes' paradise, but we have heard of none of our lady, leaving negroes disposed to emigrate there.

John Edwards—We are glad to learn of Mr. John Edwards, who had a leg broken some short time ago, near Dover, is recovering rapidly as could be expected from the nature of the injury. The leg was broken in two places—just above the ankle and below the knee.

Sociables—The ladies of the O. S. Presbyterian church have organized for the winter a series of sociables, to meet every two weeks, on the plan of mite societies. The first meeting was held at the residence of Amos Green, Esq., on last evening. Next of the place of the next meeting will be given in our next.

Buy all wool clothes of fast color and permanent good shape, strongly sewed trousers lined down the front, buttons well sewed on, reliable button-holes, good strong pockets—and plenty of them. If you buy the boy's clothes here, the boy, his suit, or the price won't worry you a bit. Boy's suits to stand the racket at $2.50, $3.00, $4.00 and $5.00. AN old man was refused insurance by a company because he was 94 years old. "What of that?" he cried, "look at your statistics: few persons die at 94 than at any other age." You he was right but not reasonable! So, you are right when you say you can get along without Chase Sanborn's Seal Brand Coffee. But is it reasonable not to give this famous coffee a single trial? A man, you know, can get along without grease—it goes hard.
